Dear colleague

Re: Letter of Invitation to attend the SASBMB Congress from 23 to 26 January 2022

It is my pleasure to invite you to present your recent research progress at the congress of the South African Society of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology. Delegates may present their results either as a poster or an oral presentation. Speakers for oral presentations are selected on the merits of the abstract and general interest.

For details on the conference, registration and submission of abstracts, please visit <https://sasbmb2022.org.za>.
